

Averitt Center for the Arts
P.O. Box 926 • 33 East Main Street
Downtown Statesboro • (912) 212-2787
www.averittcenterforthearts.org
aderubbo@averittcenterforthearts.org

October brings lots of opportunities

Temperatures are dropping and leaves are falling. Luckily, The Averitt Center for the Arts has a variety of events for everyone to enjoy and stay warm this fall!

Inspired by the observation of demolition and destruction, we have the Elsie Hill Howington's exhibition on display in the Main Gallery lobby of the Averitt Center.

Elsie Howington is a Savannah native and associate professor in the Betty Foy Sanders Department of Art at Georgia Southern University and her work will be on exhibition until November 4th.

Our following exhibition will display works by Colleen Beyer Stuart and Wesley Stuart. The Stuarts are a married artist team who both earned their Masters of Fine Arts at Georgia Southern University. Their works combine natural botanical themes with abstract lines, patterns, and forms.

In addition to the exhibition, prepare for a standing ovation as we present Mel Brooks' Young Frankenstein from October 13 through October 15 starting at 7:30 p.m. and Sunday, October 16th starting at 3 p.m. at the Emma Kelly Theater. Tickets can be purchased online at <https://www.tix.com/ticket-sales/averittcenterforthearts/6636>.

In addition to pumpkin spicing the Halloween mood, we are inviting the community to join us for our monthly Paint-N-Party on October 14th from 6 p.m.-8:30 p.m.

You will be provided with your own 16x20 canvas to let you express your inner artist.

As well as, food and fun with spooky snacks provided by Boro Takeout.

To register, please contact Tony Phillips at 912-212-2787

We also have a variety of classes and workshops for people of all ages to take advantage of, whether it is art, theater, music, or dance!

This autumn, we are offering workshops that allow you to release your inner creativity whether it is art, pottery, painting, or journaling!

Want something fun to do while on fall break? We have opened our Fall camp registration! Fall Camp will take place from October 17th-October 21. Take a glance at our website for more information!

<https://www.averittcenterforthearts.org/>