STORY SYNOPSIS

Winner of nine Tony Awards when it debuted in 1964, Fiddler on the Roof is the brainchild of Broadway legends, Jerome Robbins and Harold Prince; songwriters, Jerry Bock and Sheldon Harnick; and book writer, Joseph Stein. Touching audiences worldwide with its humor, warmth and honesty, this universal show is a staple of the musical theatre canon.

Set in the little village of Anatevka, the story centers on Tevye, a poor milkman, and his five daughters. With the help of a colorful and tight-knit Jewish community, Tevye tries to protect his daughters and instill them with traditional values in the face of changing social mores and the growing anti-Semitism of Czarist Russia.

Rich in historical and ethnic detail, Fiddler on the Roof's universal theme of tradition cuts across barriers of race, class, nationality and religion, leaving audiences crying tears of laughter, joy and sadness.

BIOGRAPHY

Eddie Frazier, Director

Eddie has been teaching at Statesboro High School since 2001, and he has been the theatre director since 2004. He's directed dramatic pieces such as Wit (2008 Region 2-AAAA one-act winner & 2016 Region 2-AAAAA one-act winner); Suddenly, Last Summer (2009 Region 2-AAAA one-act winner & 2018 Region 2-AAAAA one-act winner); 'night, Mother, The Whales of August, and A Kind of Alaska as well as large musical theatre productions such as The Jungle Book; Aladdin; The Aristocats; Alice Through the Looking Glass; Charlotte's Web; Mary Poppins; The Addams Family, Shrek the Musical, and one his favorites, Mamma Mia!

He also directed 9 to 5: The Musical; 'night, Mother; Guys and Dolls, Mary Poppins, The Sound of Music, Young Frankenstein, and Chitty Chitty Bang Bang for the Averitt Center for the Arts. He was the voice of "Audrey II" in the STARS production of Little Shop of Horrors, and he also co-directed the Averitt Youth Theater's production of The Lion, the Witch, and the Wardrobe. He starred as "Uncle Fester" in The Addams Family and "Dr. Frank-N-Furter" in The Rocky Horror Show at the Averitt Center for the Arts! He played "Willie Clark" in the Averitt Center's production of Neil Simon's The Sunshine Boys, and he had the featured role of "Darryl Ames" in the Averitt Center's production of Bright Star.

Most recently, he directed and starred in Nunsense as the 'Reverend Mother, Sister Mary Regina.' He is excited for this production of Fiddler on the Roof, and he is tremendously proud of the cast and crew!

Lisa Muldrew, Musical Director

Lisa Muldrew is married to Allen Muldrew, and they have three daughters: Alyssa, Juliet, and Amanda.

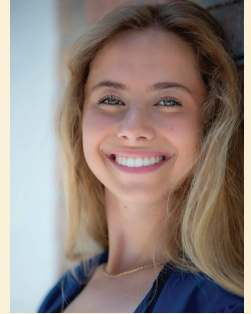

Lisa recently retired from the Bulloch County School System after a lengthy career as a music educator. During this time, while teaching at Statesboro High School, she directed several musical theatre shows, and worked together with Eddie Frazier to present several productions on behalf of the Statesboro High School Fine Arts Department. She most recently served as the music teacher at Mattie Lively Elementary School. Lisa is currently the music director for the traditional worship service at Pittman Park United Methodist Church.

Having been involved with the Averitt Center for the Arts from the beginning, Lisa has served in many capacities: performer, teacher, director, and board member. She is thankful to have had the opportunity to work with this talented cast and crew!

She studied Applied Music, Vocal Performance, and Theatre at Georgia Southern University, and is trained in Vaganova ballet, lyrical, jazz, tap, hip-hop, and more. Elizabeth especially enjoyed choreographing Fiddler on the Roof and is passionate about bringing stories to life on stage.

SPECIAL THANKS & ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

We would like to extend our gratitude to Mr. Keith Wright, Principal of Statesboro High School and also to Statesboro High School.

Mr. Keith Wright has been a long time supporter of the arts, community involvement, and collaboration between the High School and the Averitt Center for the Arts. We are truly appreciative of his ongoing support.

For this production of Fiddler on the Roof, Mr. Wright graciously allowed the cast and crew use of the Statesboro High School Auditorium and stage for rehearsals, dance practice, and vocal training prior to their move into the Emma Kelly Theater. Statesboro High has also supplied several set pieces, furniture, and props needed for us to bring this classic story to life on stage.

Thank you for your help, Statesboro High School & Mr. Wright!
