Biographies

Abby Knight is a rising junior at Southeast Bulloch High School. At school, she is a member of the Advanced Chorus, and will be joining the drama program soon. She is an extroverted, bubbly, and outgoing girl with a passion for the arts. This is her first play here at the Averitt Center! She is thrilled to take on the role of 'Jitterbug'.

Adyson Graham is a 6th grader at Trinity Christian School. Previously, she was previously in Charlotte's Web, The Little Mermaid, and Mulan. Outside of acting, Adyson enjoys swimming, dance, and playing guitar. She is looking forward to playing a Munchkin in the Wizard of Oz with her sister, Muriel.

Alison Darby is excited to be part of the 2022 Wizard of Oz cast as the Manicurist. This is her second time being part of an Averitt Center production. She would like to thank her friends and family for their support.

Amayah Moore is excited to return for her third show here at the Averitt Center! She is 7 years old and attends Brooklet Elementary. Amayah enjoys being a part of competition cheer, gymnastics, pageants and is a national titleholder, youth runway modeling having modeled in New York Fashion Week, as well as taking piano and dance lessons. Her last show with us was "Matilda" as part of the youth ensemble. She also performed in the "Nutcracker" as a Party Girl, Soldier, and Bon Bon.

Anastasia Brown received a BA in General Studies (Theater/History) from Georgia Southern University and an Associates Degree in Theater/Music and Dance from Lincoln College. Brown provides dance instruction and choreography in the areas of Musical Theater, Jazz, and Ballet/Tap. Brown also teaches high school literature and drama. Since the age of three, she has worked in many aspects of theater from acting and directing to choreography and costuming. "My goal is to create well-rounded, talented students, while encouraging and inspiring them.

Anna Grace Rollins is excited to return to the Emma Kelly Theater stage in the role of Munchkinland Teacher! Anna Grace is a rising sixth grader at Trinity Christian School, and is happy to be back with her theater family for her sixth Averitt Center production. She enjoys singing, drawing, and playing video games with her friends. She especially loves her cats, Arya and Kaylee. Anna Grace thanks you for attending tonight's performance and hopes you enjoy the show!

Biographies

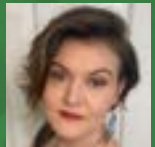

AnnaKade Clemens is proud to be here for her first ever show with The Averitt Center! She is a student at East Georgia State College where she is majoring in Interdisciplinary Studies, with a concentration on Business, Justice Studies, and Theatre. She is from Swainsboro, Georgia. AnnaKade would like to thank the cast and crew for this amazing opportunity to work alongside such great people. She also would like to thank her friends and family for encouraging her and supporting her in doing what she likes.

Bobby Burgess is excited to be in his second show with the Averitt Center. Originally from Pensacola, FL, he has called Effingham County home for the last 10 years as he has pastored West Chatham Baptist Church in Pooler. He is excited to be able to be in this show with his youngest daughter, Charley Jane, who is a Munchkin. He would like to say a special "thank you" to his beautiful bride, Charity, for making it possible for him to be in this show.

Brandi Harvey has been taking the stage at the Emma Kelly Theater since 2010. This isn't even the first time she's played a witch, as her last role on the stage was as The Witch in "Into The Woods." She regularly performs in the area with the accompaniment of Robert Cottle and as one half of the musical duo The May Belles. Ms. Harvey also tours across the state and into Florida with The Dark Desert Highway Band. When not performing, she is busy working as an SEO/Client Success Manager at HawkSEM or spending time with her three daughters and her boyfriend, Robert Faller.

Brandon Reaves is a Statesboro local, and is taking on his first role at the Averitt Center as the Cowardly Lion. Brandon is a graduate of Georgia Southern University and serves as Creative Director at Southbridge Community Church. Brandon and his wife, Katie have a 2 year old son, Johnson.

Camden King is making his stage debut as the Coroner Munchkin. He loves video games and figuring out how things work and hopes to learn more about the technical side of theater. He is 11 and will be a sixth grader at Metter Middle School this fall.

Catherine Haddad is delighted to be part of the Wizard of Oz team. She attends Bulloch Academy and would like to be a pediatrician when she grows up. Catherine loves arts, music, archery, and cats! Her motto is: "Follow your heart, but take your brain with you." Catherine would like to thank her friends and family for their endless support of her lifelong passion for the arts.

Biographies

Charley Jane Burgess is ecstatic to be in her first play at the Averitt Center. When she was 4 years old, she stole the show as Gretl Von Trapp in "The Sound of Music" at Effingham County High School. Charley Jane loves to play softball and play with her friends. She's excited to be in a play with her dad, but would like to give a huge "thank you" to her mom, sister, and brothers for all of their support.

Charlotte Ann Wiggins is thrilled to be in her first performance with the Averitt Center. She will be a fourth grade student at Portal Elementary school this year and loves all things creative. She is so grateful for everyone who made her first performance so welcoming and fun!

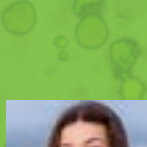

Charlotte Bridges is a sixth grader having a blast portraying her characters, Nikko - Commander of the flying Monkeys and one of the "tough guys" from Munchkin Land. The Wizard of Oz is Charlotte's fifth production with the Averitt Center for the Arts and she is so grateful for each of these opportunities.

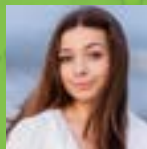

Chloe Best is excited to be performing in her third play with the Averitt Center, The Wizard of Oz. She is an upcoming 4th grader at Twin City Elementary. She enjoys singing, swimming, dancing, making crafts, and spending time with her family and dog, Max.

Christie McLendon is over the rainbow to be playing Glinda! She performs across the southeast in Mayberry themed shows as Charlene Darling ("The Andy Griffith" show), annually on Carnival cruises "A Cruise to Mayberry" and the big screen release "Mayberry Man" (available on Amazon). She enjoys doing background roles in movies and TV and singing locally with ladies trio "One Voice" in a oldies/comedy/gospel show.

Claire Kennedy is happy to return to the Averitt stage. She has been in numerous productions, including "Mary Poppins," and "Annie," where she starred as Annie. Claire is a rising 9th grader at Southeast Bulloch High School. She enjoys taking piano with Robert Cottle and dancing with Technique Dance Company and their competition team. Her other joys are her cats, music, and the arts. Claire wants to thank her family for their support.

Claudia Gibson "Nicki" Gibson has always wanted to be in a show since doing some acting in high school. She is absolutely loving this production of The Wizard of Oz. As "part of God's plan," Nicki moved into Statesboro a year ago and she's looking forward to what might be in store for her next!

Biographies

Elisabeth O'Quinn is excited to return for her second show here at the Averitt Center! She is a content marketer by day, writing blogs and designing emails for tech companies. She also enjoys pursuing creative activities in the evenings such as painting and singing. A South Georgia native, Elisabeth recently moved to Statesboro a year ago. Her favorite part about being involved with the Averitt Center is the awesome sense of community.

Ella Sobaje is excited to participate in her fifth Averitt production. Ella is a nine year-old homeschooler who enjoys spending time with her animals and reading. She hopes you enjoy this amazing show!

Ellie Spence is excited to return for her second performance at the Averitt Center as a munchkin and be a part of the children's ensemble. She previously had an ensemble role in "Matilda, the Musical." She loves the cast and crew and has enjoyed getting to work with them during this performance and looks forward to many more.

Elsa King is 8 years old and excited to be a munchkin tot! Elsa loves theatre and has performed in "Matilda the Musical, Annie, Frozen Junior (Young Anna) and "The Sound of Music" (Gretl). When she's not singing or acting, she enjoys meeting new people, playing with friends and siblings including her baby sister Ada.

Emsley King is 9 years old and is happy to be playing a munchkin. She previously played the role of Young Elsa in "Frozen Junior" and Alice in "Matilda". In her spare time she enjoys reading, drawing and taking care of her pet Axolotl.

Harper Pate is an 8 year old attending Metter Elementary School. She enjoys crafting, riding horses and learning facts about animals. Best of all, she is extremely excited to participate in her first play.

Jackson Gaines is making his debut performance as the Mayor of Munchkinland. He lives in Statesboro, GA with his family and attends Bulloch Academy. He loves coding and programming, and is always learning and creating something new. He would like to thank his music teacher Ashley Wren for inspiring him to try something new!

Jenna Best is excited to be performing in her third play with the Averitt Center, The Wizard of Oz. She enjoys singing, swimming, playing the ukulele, and spending time with her family and dog, Max.

Biographies

John Parcels is a retired faculty member from Georgia Southern, John has appeared on the Averitt stage previously in The Nutcracker; Coppelia; The Music Man; Miracle on 34th Street; Zombie Macbeth; Boarding House Reach; Calendar Girls; South Pacific; The Last Supper, the Musical; The Miracle Worker; Honk; Arsenic and Old Lace; Little Women; A Christmas Carol Ballet; Cinderella; The Lion, the Witch, and the Wardrobe; Guys and Dolls; The Legend of Sleepy Hollow; and many more!

Julia Curiel is new to the Emma Kelly Theater, and honored and excited to be a part of the show. She is a Recovery Coach at Freedom Through Recovery, works in the Ticket Office at Averitt Center for the Arts part-time, and has over a decade of administration leadership experience and education to date, serving the community through administrative roles at leading organizations. She believes the arts to be catalysts for positive social change, and is dedicated to fulfilling her personal and professional goal of working with others to facilitate the unity of our community.

Julian Schwarz is a rising senior musical theatre major at Reinhardt University. She has been doing musical theatre since she was 10 and she has been working with the Averitt Center since 2016. Some of her favorite previous roles include the title character of Violet, Cinderella in "Into the Woods", and Olive in The 25th Annual Putnam County Spelling Bee. She would like to thank her friends, family, and teachers for always supporting her and helping her grow. Enjoy the show!

Kyle Stivers is a new resident to Statesboro and has not been seen on a stage since 2016 in California. "I'm very excited to make my acting debut on this coast,". Kyle has done productions in California with Golden Chain Theatre, Good Company Players, and the Mariposa Arts Council. This is Kyle's first production with the Averitt's Center and he looks forward to participating in more productions with this wonderful cast and crew.

Lilly Gaschel is 12 years old and plays the role of Braggart, a citizen of the munchkin city. Her hobbies are acting, singing, swimming, and art. Her family recently moved here from upstate New York. They came from Vermont where Lilly performed in multiple school plays at the Mettawee community school. This is her first play at the Averitt center.

Biographies

Liz Harvey is happy to return for another show here at the Averitt Center! She is a Georgia Southern student where she is majoring in Civil Engineering. She has been in many shows such as Mary Poppins, Taming of the Shrew, A Christmas Carol, and Beauty and the Beast. Her last show with us was Annie as Lilly St. Regis, which is now one of her favorite roles.

Lola Schwarz is an 11 year old 6th grade homeschooler. She started performing on stage when she was 6 years old. Lola wishes to thank Ms. Huykin and Mr. Cottle for this opportunity as well as her family and friends for their support and encouragement.

Mackenzie Harvey has been active in the theatre community her whole life. She has performed many roles from church plays to community theater productions. Mackenzie wants to be on Broadway, and later return to Statesboro to share her experience by teaching theatre. She is a recent graduate of SHS and is excited to continue productions outside of high school with many of her theatre friends.

Matt Spence is excited to return for his second show here in Statesboro, GA at the Emma Kelly Theatre. He is a Statesboro native and has worked in the maintenance field for 18yrs. He enjoys doing plays with his daughters who also perform at the Averitt Center . Matt is grateful for the opportunity to work with such wonderful cast mates, as well as the directors and staff. He is so appreciative of the support of family and friends coming out and enjoying the result of our hard work.

Megan O'Donnell is happy to return to the Averitt Center as our Stage Manager! She is a University of South Carolina-Aiken alum where she majored in Theatre and Business. Megan was born overseas in Yokosuka, Japan and raised in the beautiful city of Pittsburgh, PA. She was last seen as Mrs. Phelps in Matilda the Musical and helped stage manage The Marvelous Wonderettes: Caps and Gowns. Megan would like to thank our cast and crew for their hard work, along with her fiance CJ, her family and friends for their endless support of her lifelong passion for the arts.

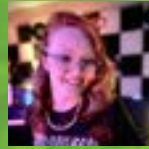

Michael McLendon is excited to be cast as a Winkie. He never in a million years thought he would be singing and dancing on a stage. After sitting thru many rehearsals and helping wife Christie run lines he discovered a love for musical theater. This will be his third production with the Averitt, previous roles were Snyder in Newsies and banker in Mary Poppins.

Biographies

Molly Griswold is a rising junior at Southeast Bulloch with a passion for the arts. At school, she is a part of the Advanced Chorus and drama programs. She is also active with Averitt Center Production, recently starring as Anna in Frozen Jr. and Louisa in Sound of Music. In her free time Molly loves spending time with friends, drawing, and loving on her many cats.

Muriel Graham is excited to be part of the Wizard of Oz production as a Munchkin. She is entering the 3rd grade at Trinity Christian School. Outside of acting, she is involved in tennis, gymnastics, and playing the piano. She was previously in "The Little Mermaid" along with her sister Adyson.

Noella Griswold is excited to return for her third show here with the Averitt Center. She is very excited to be cast as one of the "City Fathers." She previously had ensemble roles in "Matilda, the Musical" and "Frozen Jr." In her free time she loves to play legos, paint, swim, and write stories for her friends.

Ressie L. Fuller retired to Statesboro in 2010. At the Averitt Center, she has appeared in The Miracle Worker, The Music Man, Calendar Girls, South Pacific and An Averitt Christmas Carol. Ressie is a seasoned director, narrator, and host at the Averitt. She has also won an "Outstanding Newcomer" award.

Shanna Haselton is extremely excited to play her first major role, Scarecrow! Having performed numerous roles at the Averitt Center, she was truly thrilled and honored to receive this role that she definitely was not typecast for. Some of her previous notable, and iconic, roles have been Racetrack in "Newsies" (2021), the Fox in "The Lion, the Witch, and the Wardrobe" (2017), and Andromache in "The Trojan Women".

Siena Elizabeth Camiscioli is starring in her very first production with The Wizard of Oz. She began singing instruction in 2022 and has parlayed that pursuit recently with acting. Originally from Orlando, Florida, Siena has lived in Statesboro for two years and will be entering the fifth grade. Siena is very grateful to all the welcoming supporters with the production, her singing coach, Tamara Harper, and her parents Elizabeth and Chris.

Sosi Sobaje is a fourteen-year-old homeschooler. A few of her favorite things consist of reading stories, writing stories, daydreaming about stories, and having adventures with her friends. She has been in many shows at the Averitt, including Newsies, Annie, Mary Poppins, Frozen, and most recently, The Sound of Music. She is thrilled to be a part of this talented cast.

Biographies

Tara Tremblay Jeffers is incredibly excited and honored to be a part of this production of her favorite musical, The Wizard of Oz. Having held a life-long passion for theatre, Tara was encouraged by her daughter to audition and this is her FIRST production with the Averitt! A mother to 4 amazing children, grandmother to 3 beautiful grandchildren, a healthcare business veteran and philanthropist; Tara plans to continue to try new things and enjoy new experiences. Tara would like to thank the Averitt Center for the Arts for affording her this opportunity and sends a BIG thank you to Lacy, for her encouragement. Do It Like It Ain't Been Done!

Thom Mortimore is a rising Junior at Southeast Bulloch High School. He has performed with the Averitt Center several times in the past, including the shows: Sleepy Hollow Jr (Narrator & Horseman), Dracula Jr (Dracula), and Matilda (Micheal). He has also performed with Statesboro High School's Drama program, as well as SouthEast Bulloch High School's Drama program. He has enjoyed the production of Wizard of Oz, and hopes you enjoy the show!

Todd Williford is happy to be back on stage at the Averitt Center! He is currently the Director of Exceptional Student Services with Bryan County Schools. He has been in several shows at the Averitt Center with one of his favorites being the "tenor" in The Music Man. The Wizard of Oz has always been one of my favorites as a child. The cast and crew have had so much fun preparing for the show. Our area is truly blessed with such amazing talent!

Special Thanks: Everyone at the Averitt Center for The Arts would like to give our thanks and appreciation to all the cast, stage crew, lighting crew, costume crew, prop master makers, set designers, choreographers, and additional production crew/ staff who worked hard to make this happen! We wish you the best in future work and productions!

Year-round course

Program follows Bulloch County School System calendar and is off during school holidays. However, the Averitt Center offers School Break Camps.

Art Adventures give kids a chance to be creative, have fun, meet new friends, and start a life-long love of the arts. Our quality arts based program provides a safe environment aimed at nurturing the whole child. Through the arts, we promote self-discovery and the development of high self-esteem.

Transportation to Art Adventures may be available for children who attend one of the schools in the city of Statesboro.

Contact Tony Phillips at (912) 259-9228 to discuss transportation.

In the Little Artists program, children discover the world around them through playing, singing, exploring, and creating. Held in the Averitt Center's Main Building at 33 East Main Street, this fun-filled program will encourage a child's natural sense of wonder and curiosity while promoting self-expression and social development. The curriculum is designed around learning through play, creating using the arts, helping to develop social skills, and sharpening the important foundational abilities needed for school readiness.

The Little Artists program follows the Bulloch County Schools' calendar but is open to children in the surrounding counties of Screven, Jenkins, Emanuel, Candler, Evans, Bryan, and Effingham. Beginning on August 1, the program will be held Mondays and Fridays from 9 a.m. to 12 p.m. and is for potty-trained pre-school-aged kids during the school year. Tuition is $250 per month ($225 for members). There is a $15 monthly supply fee.
